

Isis Sculls

Saturday 26th September 2009

The Isis Sculls is a Head Race held in multiple divisions over an 1850m upstream course on the Isis in Oxford from the Bourne Stone to the Cox Stone.

This year's event will take place over four divisions at the following times...

11:00am, 12:45pm, 2:30pm and 4:15pm

Racing is offered in all classes of sculls including singles, doubles and quads. This includes all Junior, Senior and Veteran categories as well as mixed crews.

Doubling / trebling up is permitted.

PRIZES: Individual medals for the winners of each category with 3 or more entrants.

ENTRY FEES: £8 per seat if received before the event with your entry, otherwise £10 per seat.

CONDITIONS: The event is held under ARA Rules. Competitors must present their valid racing license before racing numbers are issued. Doubling / trebling up and boat sharing will be permitted if notified in advance of the draw, although the Secretary reserves the right to scratch crews at any time if it compromised the racing schedule.

ENTRIES BY POST: Post your entries together with cheque payable to City of Oxford Rowing Club to David Fisher, 67 London Road, Oxford, OX3 7RD.

ENTRIES BY EMAIL: Email your entries to David Fisher regatta.chairman@oxfordrowingclub.org.uk and pay by BACS to City of Oxford Rowing Club, Sort Code 20-65-18, Account 90258938, quoting reference 'ISIS-CLUB NAME'

ENTRIES CLOSE: Sunday 20th September at 6pm.

For more information, visit...

http://www.oxfordrowingclub.org.uk/isis\_sculls.html