

Oxford City Bumping Races

Saturday 24th April 2010
1800m upstream on the Isis, Oxford

NON-CONTACT BUMPS for coxed fours!
RACE 4 TIMES!

RACING for Senior and Junior, Open and Women's crews in coxed fours, will be in divisions with 4 races per division at 2-hourly intervals. Each team shall consist of 4 rowers, a cox, a poleman and a judge equipped with a bicycle. Men and women will race in separate divisions, with starting order drawn taking into account last year's finish order. The aim is to finish as high in the order as possible at the end of the day, and so secure a better starting position next year. Doubling up or sharing of equipment or coxes is not permitted. The full rules will be published at; <http://www.oxfordrowingclub.org.uk/bumps.html>

MEDALS will be awarded to the crews at the head of the Open and Women's first divisions at the end of the day's racing. Members of crews that bump in each cycle of races without being bumped will each be awarded a mini blade trophy.

ENTRIES must be submitted in writing, on British Rowing forms and accompanied by cheques (£55 per crew, payable to City of Oxford Rowing Club), to: John Hill, City Boathouse, Meadow Lane, Oxford, OX4 4BL; email: bumpingraces@oxfordrowingclub.org.uk Places are strictly limited, and precedence will be given to complete applications in the order received.

Entries close on Wednesday 21st April at 6.00pm.

Note: This is not a qualifying event. All club rowers must provide a British Rowing number. For insurance purposes, College rowers must either obtain a British Rowing license or provide evidence of racing insurance.
